

Tourist Guide

Festivities have an almost decisive role in the development of tourism in this region. It is nearly certain that the Leskovac Grill Specialties Festival became a brand name by which Leskovac is recognized beyond the borders of Serbia.

With the number of visitors it falls within the very top of tourist shows in Serbia. During the seven days it lasts, it is visited by more than 450,000 guests. The Grill Specialties Festival is authentic, and the greatest and most visited grill and meat festival in this part of Europe.

Apart from this Festival, there are various programs during the summer, such as the Summer of Leskovac, the annual Fair, and the Wine Days in Vlasotince.

The Summer of Leskovac represents a traditional, multi-media open air festival, and is one of the longest festivities in the country. The scope and concept get bigger and better every year. The Summer of Leskovac takes place at the "Doki's Shop" Complex in the very center of the city, starting at the calendar beginning of summer and lasting until mid July. Daily events consist of sport activities, a children program, and the third part of the Summer of Leskovac consists of entertainment and artistic content intended for adults.

Leskovac is a city which in its encirclement has healthy and pure nature. As such, it will prove attractive to visitors who wish to get to know it from this aspect. There are the river and lakes to be found, as well as picnic and hunting grounds, streams and natural springs.
