

PUBLIC CALL

As part of the Certification Program of cities / municipalities with favorable business environment, which represents the process of promoting standards of efficient and transparent local administration and enables assessment of the quality of services and information that local governments offer to investors and entrepreneurs, and which is implemented by the National Alliance for Local Economic Development and Agency for Local Economic Development on behalf of the City of Leskovac, it is necessary to make a database of available building sites and business premises.

As part of the Certification Program of cities / municipalities with favorable business environment, which represents the process of promoting standards of efficient and transparent local administration and enables assessment of the quality of services and information that local governments offer to investors and entrepreneurs, and which is implemented by the National Alliance for Local Economic Development and Agency for Local Economic Development on behalf of the City of Leskovac, it is necessary to make a database of available building sites and business premises.

In order to establish business contacts between owners and potential investors, we announce:

PUBLIC CALL

which invites all physical and legal entities that possess:

1. Available building land in their ownership,
2. Available office space (halls, warehouses, offices and other buildings of the same purpose), for sale and / or lease on the territory of the City of Leskovac, to contact the Agency for Local Economic Development (Department for Local Economic Development) until November 30, 2013.
Phone: +381 16 216 961
e-mail: office@aler.rs
or in person at the address:
The City of Leskovac
Agency for Local Economic Development
45/II floor, Trg Revolucije
16000 Leskovac